The Certificate course is designed to give learners the underpinning knowledge, skills and competences to use counselling skills ethically and safely in a variety of contexts and roles.

This qualification is for those:

- Starting the first level of training as a professional counsellor
- Who want to use counselling skills in other professional or helping roles
- Who want to improve their professional and personal relationships as part of personal development.

This qualification could lead to increased employability for those whose role is to support others in e.g. health and social care work, teaching and learning, advocacy and mediation, support and project work and other helping roles.

There is a significant amount of written work and you will probably need an additional 4-5 hours per week to do the necessary reading and produce the written material. More details are available on our information sheet for prospective candidates.

This 90 hour course will run from the end of January to mid July 2020. The aim is to offer a daytime course—9.30am to 1pm and an evening course 6pm to 9.30 pm

There will be two Saturday sessions—10-4pm

The course will be held at a central Market Harborough Venue
